Genealogies of Memory in Central and Eastern Europe

is an international academic project run by European Network Remembrance and Solidarity in cooperation with the Faculty of Sociology of the University of Warsaw since 2011. Its aim is to facilitate academic exchange between Central and East European scholars of individual and collective memory, and to promote this region's study of memory among the broader international academic community through workshops, seminars, and conferences.

Please note that all times are indicated according to Warsaw time: CEST, UTC+2:00.

To participate in the Genealogies of Memory, please log in on the website:
