

PROGRAMME

DAY 1: 28 October (Monday), University Warsaw Library

8:30 Registration

9:15-9:40

Introduction

Rafał Rogulski – director of the ENRS

Małgorzata Pakier – head of the Academic Department at the ENRS

9:40-10:00

Opening remarks

Veronika Pehe, Joanna Wawrzyniak – conference convenors

10:00-11:30

Keynote lecture: Johanna Bockman

The Other Washington Consensus: Remembering Socialism in Washington, DC

Chair: Veronika Pehe

11:30-12:00 Coffee break

12:00-13:30

Roundtable: From Socialist Internationalism to Capitalist Globalisation and Beyond

James Mark

Bogdan Iacob

Tobias Rupprecht

Chair: Joanna Wawrzyniak

13:30-14:30 Lunch

14:30-16:15

Panel 1. Key Narratives

Florian Peters, Shock Therapy Mythologies: Contested Memories of Poland's Balcerowicz Plan

Muriel Blaive, Velvet Revolution, Economic Reforms, and Lustration: A Trilogy Imposed by Circumstances or by Political Rivalry? Essay in Counterfactual History

Wolf-Rüdiger Knoll, A "Bad Bank" of Transformation: The Role of the "Treuhandanstalt" in the Collective Memory of East Germans after Reunification

Chair and discussant: James Mark

16:15-16:45 Coffee break

16:45-18:30

Panel 2. Social memory: contested or consensual?

Rigels Halili, Post-communist Transformation, Social Memory and Blaming of the "Other" – the Case of Albania

Jill Massino, Pluralism or Plutocracy? Popular Expectations and Perspectives of Economic Change in Post-socialist Romania

Andrzej Pabisiak, Thirty Years After: The Collective Memory of Transition in Poland based on Research on Polish Sejm Transcripts

Chair and discussant: Saygun Gökarıksel

18:30-20:00 Dinner

DAY 2: 29 October (Tuesday), University Warsaw Library

9:30-11:15

Panel 3. Memory and Agency

Veronika Pehe, "Let's Start a Business": The Memory of Entrepreneurship and the Czech Student Generation of 1989

Gazela Pudar Drasko, Post-Socialist Transformation in Serbia: Critical Perspective of Intellectuals

Katarzyna Waniek, Biographical experiences of transformation in the cohort born 1980-1990. A case analysis

Chair and discussant: Oldřich Tůma

11:15-11:45 Coffee break

11:45-13:15

Keynote lecture: Thomas Lindenberger Transformation through Unification = Unification through Transformation? Regimes of Truth and the Discontent of Memories in the German Transformation Regime

Chair: Muriel Blaive

13:15-14:15 Lunch

14:15-16:00

Panel 4. Cultural Memory and Economy

Alex Condrache, That is how Billionaires Smoke: The Nouveau Riche of the Transition in Romanian Post-Communist Cinema

Olga Gontarska, Cinema without an Audience: Experience of Transformation Depicted in Ukrainian films

Saygun Gökarıksel, "The Great Betrayal": 1989 and the "Secrets" of Poland's New Capitalism

Chair and discussant: Ksenia Robbe

16:00-16:30 Coffee break

16:30-19:00 Film screening and discussion: Dług [Debt], dir. Krzysztof Krauze (1999)

In Polish with English subtitles

Commentators: Veronika Pehe, Mateusz Werner

DAY 3: 30 October (Wednesday), University Warsaw Library

9:30-11:00

Keynote lecture: Adam Mrozowicki

Coping with System Change: the 'Grand History' of Transformation and Biographical Experiences of Polish Workers

Chair: Małgorzata Pakier

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

11:30-13:15

Panel 5. Memory and Labour

Till Hilmar, Drawing Moral Lessons from Economic Transformations: Economic Memory, Deservingness and Social Relations in post-1989 (East) Germany and the Czech Republic

Joanna Wawrzyniak, Karolina Mikołajewska-Zajac, Nostalgia and Moral Economy in Post-socialist Industry: Poland

Mariusz Jastrzab, How Did We Survive? Official Corporate Histories from the Period of Systemic Change

Chair and discussant: Florian Peters

13:15-14:15 Lunch

14:15-15:45

Keynote lecture: Martin Schulze Wessel

Universalist and Particularist Policy Legitimations in the Transformation Period

Chair: Rafał Rogulski

15:45-16:15 Coffee break

16:15-18:00

Panel 6. Current Echoes of the Transformation

Sabine Stach, Guiding through Memory: A Case Study on (Post)Communism Tours

Bartłomiej Krzyszta, Capitalizing Socialism in Postcolonial Georgia. Post-socialist Economic Reality and Structure of Memory on Peripheral Flea Market

Mykola Makhortykh, We Were Hungry, but we also Were Free: (Counter)Narratives of the Russia's first post-Soviet Decade on Instagram

Chair and discussant: Bogdan Iacob

18:00-18:15

Final remarks

Veronika Pehe and Joanna Wawrzyniak

About the Project:

Genealogies of Memory in Central and Eastern Europe is an international academic project run since 2011. Its aim is to facilitate academic exchange between Central and East European scholars of individual and collective memory, and to promote this region's study of memory among the broader international academic community through workshops, seminars and conferences.

Małgorzata Pakier and Joanna Wawrzyniak
Conceptual Team & Initiators of the Project

Venue:

University of Warsaw Library, Dobra 56/66, 00-312 Warszawa

Main Organiser:

European Network Remembrance and Solidarity (ENRS)

Co-organiser:

Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich

Partners:

Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw

Institute for Contemporary History, Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic

University of Exeter

Leverhulme Trust

Federal Institute for Culture and History of the Germans in Eastern Europe

Media partners:

New Eastern Europe

Rzeczpospolita

Conference convenors:

Dr Veronika Pehe (Institute for Contemporary History, Czech Academy of Sciences)

Dr Joanna Wawrzyniak (Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw)

Academic council of the conference:

Prof. Wiesława Kozek (University of Warsaw)

Prof. Jan Rydel (ENRS/ Pedagogical University of Cracow)

Prof. Martin Schulze Wessel (Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich)

Dr Oldřich Tůma (Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic)

ENRS is funded by:

Federal Government Commissioner
for Culture and the Media

MINISTRY
OF HUMAN CAPACITIES

MINISTRY
OF CULTURE
OF THE SLOVAK REPUBLIC

MINISTRY OF CULTURE
AND NATIONAL IDENTITY

Contact: genealogies@enrs.eu

The event is carried out as a part of international series of conferences "1989 – Changes and Challenges" devoted to the collapse of communism in Europe.